

OUR MOTTO!

"LARGE SALES AND SMALL PROFITS."

LINN & SCRUGGS

Acting upon this principle, have built up a trade that has no parallel in the history of the trade in any similar city in the United States. It is a common occurrence that houses doing a large business are looked upon by envious and short-sighted eyes as monopolies, prejudicial to the welfare of the community. But this is not so. A monopolist is one who buys up all of a certain class of goods, and thus controlling the whole supply, is at liberty to, and does raise the price to whatever high figure he chooses. But if, when he controls the supply, he sells at no more than a just profit, he is not a monopolist in the odious sense of that term; and again, if by large purchases he is enabled to obtain merchandise at the lowest possible rate from the producer, and then sell it at a smaller advance beyond cost than any other sell it, he becomes a very useful agent in behalf of consumers, and though their competitors may suffer, the people at large are absolute gainers. Millions of dollars are saved to communities by the talent and enterprise of merchants and tradesmen. And all the encouragement they receive beyond the fact of dollars and cents, is a power that bears fruits from which all may gather.

Linns & Scruggs' trade extends in different directions from 30 to 80 miles, and embraces the best class of trade in the city and country.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

BOOKS IN THE COLONIAL TIMES.

In 1652, Hezekiah Usher, the first bookseller, began his business in Boston, Massachusetts. The first settlement of the town was made in 1630. The printing press at Cambridge was in operation, and had been put under the control of Samuel Green, whose descendants—he had nineteen children—are so widely scattered, and so well known in the history of printing in the colonies. Green remained in the management of the Cambridge press nearly fifty years. Isaiah Thomas, the author of the "History of Printing," collected nearly one hundred books he printed.

There must have been some demand for books in the Massachusetts colony, at that time, to induce Usher to settle there as a bookseller. The fact, too, that he continued in the business over twenty years, and made a fortune in it, shows that he found a demand for his wares. That he was successful is known from the fact that in 1677 he advanced to the State of Massachusetts the purchase money for Maine, the proprietary right to which the grandson of Gorges, the original grantee, sold for twelve hundred and fifty pounds. At this time, also, we have the information that there were four booksellers in Boston; Dutton, the London bookseller, having carried there an invoice of books on speculation, "most of them practical," and "well suited to the genius of New England," reports that he found this number of competitors on the ground. Usher was not only a bookseller, he was also a publisher, and in 1672 obtained from the General Court a monopoly for seven years for printing the laws of the colony. He was the agent, also, of the London Society for the Propagation of the Gospel among the Indians, and superintended their publications in Massachusetts. It was at the expense of this society that Eliot's translation of the Bible in the dialect of the Natick Indians was printed, and in this and similar works the society must have spent over two thousand pounds.

Boston was the chief city of New England, continued to be the literary centre of the colonies into the middle of the next century. In fact, there was but little attention given to books in any of the other cities. A singular evidence of the parity of books is given by Franklin, in his life. In 1721, returning to Philadelphia from a visit he had made to Boston, he brought with him his collection of books, together with those belonging to his friend Collins. This collection he describes as a "pretty collection of mathematics and natural philosophy." He traveled from Boston to New York in a ship, having arrived in New York he says: "The then governor of New York, the Baron (son of Bishop Burnet), hearing from the captain that a young man, one of his passengers, had a great many books, desired he would bring me to see him. I waited upon him, accordingly, and would have taken Collins with me but that he was not sober. The Governor treated me with great civility, showed me his library, which was a very large one, and we had a good deal of conversation about books and authors." Evidently the possession of a collection of books was a rare thing in New York at that time to excite attention and comment.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life, with the American people, is to "get rich"; the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by eating CROCKER'S Astringent. It should be used by a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Loss of Sleep, etc. You need not suffer another day—take a dose of Astringent Flavour will relieve you at once. Sample bottles 10 cts. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by all first-class druggists in the U.S., and by A. J. Stoner, D. F. Gue & Son and Thro. Hildebrandt.

NO FAILURE KNOWN.

There is no cure on record where Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horsehound has failed to give satisfaction. On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, in severe colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. Containing no opium or other dangerous drug, it does not constipate, and is safe to administer in all conditions of health. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size ten cents; large size 50 cents and one dollar. Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner, Decatur.

Also agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which is sure death to worms, pleasant to take, and requires no physic. Price 25 cents. Try it.

'CHEAP CHARLEY' ON THE WAR-PATH.

Friend Schneider, you are dressed so gay It takes me by surprise; You always like to put on style, But it never looked so nice.

Just look here at this coat's lapel, How careful it is pressed, And then that real artistic work On this, your elegant vest.

Friend Schneider, all this fits you well As though they were made to order; I suppose you did not buy them here— Bought them beyond our border?

Then I confess, for many years Myself and all my boys, Among the many suits we bought Found nothing near as choice.

Big prices, too, I had to pay, The biggest ones that ruled; Yet when we came to wear the stuff, We discovered we were fooled.

Friend Schneider, please to tell me quick, Who makes this goods so nicely, And if it is not too far from here I will buy the same precisely.

"Friend Jones," said Schneider in reply, Big prices are at an end; Just patronize "Cheap Charley" here, He is really "The Poor Man's Friend."

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For County Judge,
SAMUEL F. GERRIL.
For County Clerk,
GEORGE P. HARDY.
For County Treasurer,
GEORGE M. WOOD.
For Superintendent Schools,
JOHN T. MONTGOMERY.

From all parts of the county our republican friends report the prospects favorable for the republican ticket. The full vote of the party will be polled for the republican candidates if it is brought to the polls, and between this and election day republicans should be vigilant in getting out the full strength of the party.

HON. M. H. CHAMBERLAIN, secretary to the board of railroad and warehouse commissioners, was in town for a couple of hours to-day, and called at the REPUBLICAN office. Mr. Chamberlain will be remembered by many of our people for the eloquent speech he delivered in the court house, during the campaign of last year.

The ticket the Republicans of Macon county have placed before the people is unexceptionable in its character. Every man on the ticket is of sterling worth, and we doubt not that they will be elected by a handsome majority. The Democrats, flushed with their recent victory in Ohio, hastily got together last Saturday and nominated a ticket, but they will only divide honors with the Greenback party.

ONE of the first questions that will come before the Senate, it is said, will be the case of the Louisiana senators. It is hardly within the bounds of reason to expect that Kellogg will be admitted. "The South must be conciliated," and nothing short of the absolute obliteration of every vestige of republicanism in that section will have the desired effect. Oh, we're a great people.

REPUBLICANS should remember that next fall Illinois will elect a new legislature, and that legislature will elect a United States senator. Recent developments have proven that this is no time to trifle with the democracy, and that we may be better prepared next year to win. It is important that the full strength of the party be polled for our county ticket at the approaching election. A defeat this year might make a great many Republicans indifferent as to the result next year.

WHAT an accomplished set of liars they have among the editors of Kentucky! We find the following in a copy of an obscure sheet published in a small town in that state:

We were shown last Saturday a sweet potato grown by John Clark of this place which measured three feet and four inches in length.

They want immigration in Kentucky, and out of respect for their wishes in that line we forbear giving the name of the locality from which the above emanated. No honest man would emigrate to a country that produces such liars.

ILLINOIS seems to have had luck all around, politically speaking. Morrison, who wanted to be speaker of the house, found so few supporters that he withdrew from the contest, and now reports say that his efforts to defeat Randall are to be punished by taking from him the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, which is promised to Fernando Wood. Goodell, of Chicago, (formerly of Springfield) wanted to be postmaster of the house, but he only mustered 43 votes out of the 152. And the patriots of the republican persuasion in Illinois seem to be equally unfortunate. We cannot think now of a prominent place in the gift of Mr. Hayes which is filled by an Illinoisan. There was a time when things were different, but that was prior to the era of Ohio's prominence.

What Can Be Done in New York.

[Albany Evening Journal.]
In 1871 the project seemed hopeless, but we won. In 1875 the chances seemed far more against us, but a little more effort would have carried the state. All we need now is the conviction and the courage of success. We firmly believe that, with the present situation, good work can bring a glorious republican victory. Let us up and at it. There is little time for argument. It must be a work of organization. It must be the labor of the committees to arouse the people, and get out the vote. With such an effort, we shall triumph.

THE TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN IN THE COUNTRY.

Meetings Last Night at Sunday Points —Over Four Hundred Sign the Pledge.

The temperance campaign is being carried on with vigor throughout the county, and with marked success. Some four or five meetings were held last night at different points, which were addressed by gentlemen who went out from this city.

AT BLUE MOUND.
Rev. Mr. Inman, John W. Hartley, J. B.
Winchell and N. L. F. Monroe addressed a large gathering. A protracted meeting was in progress in the Christian Church, but the pastor cheerfully gave up his meeting for the evening, and turned the church over to the apostles of temperance. The address by Mr. Inman is specially of being a very able one, and he was followed by the gentlemen named above in well-timed remarks.

After the speaking sixty-eight persons signed the pledge.

AT MARION.
A large meeting was addressed by Rev.
W. H. Prestley, Franklin Priest and Theodore Nelson. Though the notice was comparatively brief, the people turned out in large numbers. Rev. Mr. Prestley made the principal address, which was clear and forcible, carrying conviction to the minds of those who heard him.— Messrs. Priest and Nelson followed with appropriate appeals to the audience to enlist under the temperance banner; in response to which over one hundred persons gave in their names.

AT MARION.
A large and enthusiastic meeting was also held at Marion, which was addressed by Dr. Ingham of this city, J. B. McDonald, president of the Reform Club, and Peter Williams, each of whom acquitted himself in a manner which convinced those present that temperance was right, as was shown by over one hundred and fifty persons signing the pledge.

AT WARRENDALE.
A meeting was held at Warrendale, the church being crowded to its full capacity. The speakers were John Brayton, John A. Arnold and E. B. Moore, each of whom spoke from personal experience of the evils of drinking. That their speeches were convincing and effective was shown by the fact that ninety-two signed the pledge, and the people were enthusiastic for another meeting.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Wheatland Township S. S. Convention met Sunday evening, Oct. 14th, at Bethlehem Church, W. T. Beadles, president, in the chair, Samuel Hopkins, acting as secretary.

The exercises consisted of singing, and speaking upon various Sunday School topics. An interesting and appropriate object lesson was given by Rev. W. L.
Banks.

Many questions were then handed in, which were very ably answered by Mr. A.
Alison.

The convention then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing term, which resulted in the election of A. F. Hopkins, president; George Conrad, vice president; Willis Smith, secretary; James Montgomery, chorister; W. T. Beadles, treasurer.

The church was well filled, and good attention was given throughout the entire evening.

The convention then adjourned.

MILABON.

PERSONAL.

Mr. B. Z. Taylor, of Blue Mound, was registered at the Priest House yesterday.

Mr. J. M. Bower, of Clara, Platt co., is doing the city to-day.

Mrs. E. P. Russell, of Elkton, Ky., is visiting the family of B. O. McReynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Baker have returned from their visit to Latham.

Postmaster Sheriff, of Paris, is in town.

J. A. Brown, Esq., Master in Chancery, is something of a farmer, and remarkably successful in making mother earth shell out bountiful crops. This morning he laid upon our table a nice bunch of radishes, which were from a third crop raised from the seed of a second crop.

Firemen's Tournament.—As this semi-annual firemen's festival draws near there seems to be an increasing interest on the part of our citizens to witness the display and the trial, speed and skill between the fire companies. The time fixed is Wednesday, Oct. 24th, just one week from tomorrow. Should the weather be good there will be large delegations from the country, who, together with the large number of city people who will turn out will give our streets a lively and animated appearance. Several companies are expected from abroad, and should they be here to join in the street parade the display will be an imposing one. Indeed, our own companies alone present an attractive appearance, and make a fine display upon the streets.

Latimer Benson.—This eloquent and earnest advocate of temperance will lecture at the Opera House on Thursday evening of this week. This lecture will be entirely different from those delivered by Mr. Benson when he was here before, being a thrilling recital of experience and a masterly presentation of argument in favor of the temperance reformation now sweeping over the country. Everybody will want to hear this eloquent apostle of temperance, and to insure an opportunity of doing so, persons should secure reserve seats at Abbott's, which they can do without extra charge, the diagram now being open there. Those desiring good seatings should get their seats without delay. We understand that large delegations are expected from the country.

SHUTTING OUT THE ENEMY.

It is better to shut out the enemy, Disease, than to battle with him after he has entered the fortress of the body.— Therefore, if health is endangered by harmful influences, such as a malarious atmosphere, unhealthy occupations, accidental pursuits, and those which necessitate exposure to cold, wet, or other exposure in rough weather, it is the part of wisdom to protect it by the use of a reliable preventive. No article sold, advertised or prescribed, is so well adapted for this purpose as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an agreeable and efficacious tonic, recommended by physicians as a medicinal stimulant and corrective, but in its action, and having for its basis of action this benign preventive, the system may bid defiance to disease, no matter how unfavorable the conditions.

The Chicago Evening Journal, which has done the best that could be done under the circumstances to hold up the hands of the Administration, has the following:

One thing is becoming continually more evident, and that is, that whatever may be thought of the President's Southern policy of pacification, his new civil service rule, which effectually ties the hands and closes the mouths of those Republicans who happen to hold offices by government appointment, is a blunder.— While its effect is not reformatory upon the civil service, yet it manifestly works weakness to the Republican organization, which the President and his administration can hardly afford to damage, even by a mistake of policy.

And the Alton Telegraph adds "that the civil service order likewise discourages a host of ambitious men from participating in politics. If, reason these gentlemen, membership in a political
